

Back in 1970, I was part of the First Graduating Class of Royal High School. It was a great honor and I wrote a poem to commemorate the event. I called it Graduation. I gave it to Mr. James, and to my surprise, the year book of the Class of 1971 had pictures of our graduation, and my poem was published next to them.

Move ahead 55 years. We are celebrating our Reunion. I do not know if I can make it or not. We will see. But I was given a new poem to follow up on the original poem. I want to share both of them here for all the classes to see.

Thank you
